Shoemaker Rides Five Winners

Florida Derby to Easy Spur

Florida Derby was won yesterday by James D. Norris' Easy Spur who overtook Brookmeade Stable's Sword Dancer in the stretch to win by three-quarters of a length.

Master Palynch finished third after setting the early pace and Chosen One was fourth.

It marked the third straight year that jockey Bill Hartack had ridden the $116,000 Florida Derby winner. He won in 1957 on General Duke and last year on Tim Tam.

Another brilliant riding effort took place at Jamaica in New York where Willie Shoemaker rode five winners in six mounts. Included was his victory on Isendu in the $25,000-added Paumonok Handicap.
